

Do Not Lose Heart

A.R.

Andy Robison

Do not lose heart, do not lose heart; take care, my soul, that you not lose heart. Do not lose heart, do not lose heart; E - ter - ni - ty mat - ters, so do not lose heart.

1. How can I pray when my heart is bro - ken,
2. Why do I strive to help the help - less,
3. Here I shall preach till my voice is si - lenced,

How can I praise when I see so much pain?
Why do I stand up to name His good name?
Here I shall work till my strength fades a - way.

How can I try through the man - y tri - als,
Why do I fight in the bat - tle end - less,
Here I shall love till my heart stops bea - ting,

How can I grow when it feels there's no gain?
Why do I shun all the pleas - ures of shame?
Here I shall walk in the light of the day.

How can I work when it looks so worth - less,
Why do I cry when the world is care - less,
Here I shall press on to the fin - ish,

How can I serve when it all seems vain?
Why do I preach that the Sa - vior came?
Here I shall hear my spir - it say, Do not lose heart, do not lose heart; E - ter - ni - ty mat - ters, so do not lose heart.
