

How Do You See This Old World?

A.R.

Andy Robison

1. { How do you see this old world? Oh, Am I just here to make mon - ey? Or

2. { "Fol - low your heart and your feel - ings," is Could it be Christ is my Sa - vior? He's how do you soak it all in? Oh, die in the vain quest for peace? How all my friends seem to be - lieve. There pro - ven Him - self in the past, By Where did you come from and why are you here? And,

Can I find out if there's truth in the world, Or has to be more than this earth has in store, Be - walk - ing on wa - ter and rai - sing the dead, As -

1. what does it all real - ly mean?
shall I just live as I please? I've been told that fore this shell cea - ses to breath. cend - ing tri - umphant at last. Now I know that 2.

Je - sus is the an - swer, Je - sus is the way.

Je - sus is the way.

Je - sus is the on - ly life worth liv - ing here to - day. (1) I've been told that
(2) Now I know that

Je - sus is the truth that all the world needs to know. The

One in whom con - sists all things is the One who loves me so.